DID YOU KNOW that each year, in a hard water area, the average family home will use water containing 154lbs (70kg) of scale. If left unchecked, this mountain of limescale can cause serious – and expensive – damage to your home plumbing and appliances, kitchen and bathroom fittings too.

The Carbon Trust estimate that just 1mm of limescale in water pipes can increase energy consumption by 7%. With utility bills set to rise for the foreseeable future, this represents a significant cost to the average family home.

Your household plumbing becomes increasingly inefficient, which makes heating your water extremely expensive. For example, a boiler with just 5mm of scale takes an extra 4 hours to supply the average home's hot water – 90 minutes is all it should take!

And, of course, this limescale finds its way into your household appliances too, just take a look into most kettles and the evidence is there for all to see. The furled up heating element, the heavily stained inside and the rusty flakes of scale which find their way into your morning cuppa.

Yes, you can buy a new kettle for less than a fiver, but washing machines and dishwashers are much more expensive to replace. Limescale build-up reduces the lifespan of the appliance and increases the likelihood of a breakdown. And who couldn't do without the expense of calling out a plumber these days?

Even if you ignore the hidden dangers lurking in your water system, physical evidence of limescale damage is all too evident throughout your home.

In the kitchen, taps, tiles and stainless steel surfaces all bear the hallmarks of limescale damage. Evidence can be found on your pots and pans and, unless your dishwasher has just been installed, you will find all the water spots and stains on just-washed glasses and cutlery too.

In bathrooms and WCs, toilets, taps and tiles are dulled with scale damage, and the once-sparkling sink and shiny shower enclosure are almost impossible to keep clean for any length of time.

Even freshly washed clothes feel rough to the touch, and tiny scale particles can contribute to incidences of dry, irritating skin for yourself and family members.

New home builders and renovation companies are waking up to the damage limescale can cause, and the cost implications of leaving it unchecked. What's the point in investing in that sparkly new kitchen or bathroom, only to see the shine come off within months, thanks to the build-up of limescale.

THE GOOD NEWS is that limescale can be permanently removed from your home quickly and easily, using a system that can pay for itself in the first 18 months.

After that, the significant savings are yours to keep... year after year! A whole-house Gold Series Water Softener System from EWT provides real cost savings in terms of service, maintenance and replacement of water heaters, dishwashers, washing machines and showers, and also extends their life expectancy.

SAVE MONEY, TIME AND WATER!

Independent research on the benefits of EWT's Gold Series System shows it can pay for itself in a matter of months. A lifetime of softened water will help you save time, water and money – up to £500 annually on detergents, heating and appliances

The cost of limescale damage on your home appliances can be huge, not to mention the effects on your family's wellbeing. Take advantage of this Exclusive Offer from FOREVER! EWT to remove limescale from your home...

SAVE MONEY WHEN YOU PROTECT YOUR HOME & YOUR APPLIANCES FROM

THE HIDDEN DANGERS OF LIMESCALE

HOW MUCH IS LIMESCALE COSTING YOU?

Removing limescale from your cylinder can cut the cost of heating your water by 25%. Kitchen appliances operate more efficiently and last longer without maintenance. Just 1mm of limescale in pipes can increase energy consumption by over 7%, adding hundreds of pounds to the average home's heating bills.

SAVE UP TO £500 IN YOUR HOME EVERY YEAR WITH EWT

(depending on usage) – by installing a whole-house Gold Series System.

MAY HELP PROTECT SENSITIVE SKIN Whilst there is no hard and fast scientific proof that hard water irritates soft, sensitive skin, with the EWT System, clothes come out of your washing machine softer, towels aren't as hard and don't irritate soft sensitive skin as much.

INDEPENDENT STUDY: "Softeners are among 'very best' household energy savers – 'green benefits' to water heaters, appliances and showerheads"

LISLE, Illinois—EWT Water Softeners can save significant amounts of money and energy in the home, a major new study by the independent Battelle Institute has revealed. Softeners help preserve the efficiency of water heaters and major appliances, and keep showers and taps unclogged, the report found. In the study, dishwashers and washing machines were operated for 30 days and 240 completed wash cycles on soft and hard water sources. The units using soft water were almost completely free of any water scale build-up. Units using hard water showed the need for decliming and cleaning due to the build-up of scale and deposits.

Limescale build-up in washing machines and dishwashers significantly increases running costs and reduces the life expectancy of these costly kitchen appliances

ONE FAMILY'S STORY

Despite moving into a brand new home, the Desai Family soon had a leaking tap in their bathroom. "After seeing how quickly limescale was building up on the outside of that tap, I could only imagine what it was doing to our new washing machine, heating system and shower. We called EWT to ask about their Gold Series system, which they said would remove limescale from our water forever! There was never any pressure from the adviser, and he made sure I understood everything – I had a lot of questions! I can now say I made the right choice with my EWT system. There is no more limescale in our home, cleaning is much easier – especially in the kitchen and bathroom – and I'm confident that I am protecting my appliances and boilers from unnecessary damage from hard water and limescale."

HOT WATER COSTS LESS

Better still, you can save up to 30% or more on hot water costs – your usage of limescale removal products will also tumble when you install an EWT system. Combined with reduced maintenance costs, this represents a smart investment for you, your home and your wallet – for years to come!

In fact, you can start saving right away with this INCREDIBLE OFFER from EWT Technologies. An EWT engineer can install a Gold Series 'whole-house' system in under 3 hours for just £499 (inc VAT – was £999).

Installation is FREE (normally £140) and this offer includes an G1 Drinking Water System (normally £120) for crisp clear drinking water straight from your tap! That's £260 of extra value, yours FREE when you call today! And that's not all...

EWT guarantee that, if you find a better quality system for less, they will give you back three times the difference!

Honouring our Best at annual awards do

UNSUNG heroes got the recognition they deserve at this year's glittering Luton's Best Awards ceremony.

Winners, nominees and their families and friends packed Warren Weir at Luton Hoo on Friday for the annual celebration.

Primary school teacher Jamie Kelly walked away with the People's Choice Award - sponsored by Luton on Sunday - after picking up almost half the votes cast. Jamie, who also won Outstanding Teacher, had been nominated for his work at Chantry Primary School where he organises a lot of extra-curricular activities for pupils. He said: "Winning the first was surprising enough and to win the second was a complete shock. I feel really humbled to know that people have taken the time to vote for me."

Other winners included Great British Bake Off winner Nadiya Hussain, Keech Hospice patient Tony Jules and housing charity Signposts. ■ Turn to pages 2 and 3 for the full list of winners.

Airport Enterprise Zone takes off, but...

Council must find a further £31m savings

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutonsunday.co.uk

WEDNESDAY'S Government Spending Review was a mixed bag for Luton, with great opportunity meeting potentially crippling cuts.

A new Enterprise Zone around Luton Airport could generate 10,000 jobs for the area, in addition to those created by the £110m airport expansion.

But as further cutbacks were announced, Luton Borough Council (LBC) said it would suspend 'non-essential' spending to find savings of £31m over the next three years, despite having already made £86.5m worth over the last five.

The authority's £64m revenue support grant from central government is to be scrapped altogether by 2020.

Trevor Holden, chief executive of LBC said: "Taking all this into account, and because the pressure on demand-led services is going to remain high, it is absolutely vital we take swift and decisive action within the authority in order to bring spend back into line."

The current forecast overspend in the council's revenue budget for the year 2015/16 amounts to £5.2m.

Mr Holden added: "As a council, Luton has a high dependency on central government funding, referred to as the 'Revenue Support Grant'.

"This grant, we anticipate, will be reduced to zero by 2020. The proposed retention of business rates in no way compensates for this massive loss.

"The best way for us to address this is to drive the local economy, which is exactly why LBC developed its Investment Framework...the Chancellor's announcement of 26 additional enterprise zones, including Luton Airport, will result in significant investment, economic growth and jobs."

A spokeswoman for Luton Airport said: "Being granted an Enterprise Zone is testament to the importance of the airport to the local economy, businesses and community."

"The £110m transformation of the airport will create thousands of jobs and the new Enterprise Zone will further add to those numbers."

Who Else Wants To Get Rid Of Sciatica And Back Pain Without Surgery?

Advertisement feature

If You're One Of More Than 20 MILLION Adults In The UK Suffering This Crippling Pain, This Could Be Your Salvation!Chronic back and leg pain can make you feel old and worn out.It is painful to work, difficult to sleep, and almost impossible to do the things you enjoy most each day.Jeff C. from Cambridge describes it like this:"I couldn't work or do anything useful, and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything."

Do any of these telltale signs sound familiar?

- Pain radiating from your lower back to your buttock and down the back of your leg
- Numbness, tingling, and muscle weakness in the affected leg
- Nagging discomfort that feels like anything from a mild ache, to a sharp burning sensation, to excruciating pain

If you are suffering from any of these discouraging symptoms, it is entirely possible you may have sciatica.So What Exactly Causes Sciatica?Sciatica is your body's signal that there is too much pressure on a nerve in your lower back. The most common cause of this pressure is a bulging or herniated lumbar disc.Many mistakenly think the extreme measure of back surgery is the only way to relieve their pain. The problem is, often this type of back surgery simply doesn't work.Your Safe, Drugless, Non-Surgical SolutionFortunately, if you suffer from any of the conditions listed above, there is hope!Now your pain can be relieved or eliminated by new non-surgical therapeutic techniques that are extremely effective.Recent results published in medical journals bear this out. With success rates as high as 90% for Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care, some back surgeons are recommending it as the preferred option before surgery is considered.Low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson wholeheartedly agrees.At his Atlas Wellness Centre in Bedfordshire, Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists are seeing stunning results.For Some People
It Is Almost MiraculousPeter states, "We have helped over 4,026 patients suffering from this agonising condition to say goodbye to their pain, and start living again."Peter continues, "In more than a decade of practice, I've never seen a treatment as effective as this for sciatica and low back pain.
It is almost miraculous how it gives our patients back their joy for life."Peter went on to say,
"There's nothing natural about living with chronic pain."And now thanks to the advanced technology used at the Atlas Wellness Centre, there simply isn't any reason to endure it."Peter's face lights up when he describes the state-of-the-art technology he and his spinal care specialists utilise for their patients."The ultra-advanced technology we use is not found anywhere else in Bedfordshire. We can precisely diagnose the cause of your low back pain and sciatica, and create apersonalised programme for reconstructing the damaged area. We are seeing superior long-term positive results for almost all of our clients."Peter Olsson shared what some of their patients say about their experiences with this breakthrough technology...*"Thank God I called your number.
I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks.""You gave me back my life!""I feel 15-years younger!"*This means in just a matter of a few short weeks, you could be back to engaging in your favourite activities, able to work, enjoying your love life, or traveling again.Peter is eager to open the door to healing to as many as possible. So for a limited time he has reserved 100 new patient consultations for our readers at a substantial discount.He urges our readers, "It's time for you to find out if Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care will be your lasting solution to the anguish of sciatica and low back pain."Call today and you will receive everything listed below for just £43. We usually charge £245 for this extensive evaluation!"

IN IT TOGETHER:
The council's proposals have been met with opposition

Parents' plea to save vital centres

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE mother of a set of premature 'miracle' twins has launched an online petition against planned cuts to children's centres.

Kayleigh Darby, of Round Green, hopes to show Luton Borough Council the centres 'mean a lot to a lot of people'.

The council is consulting on proposals to cut the number of centres from seven to between one and four.

Kayleigh's twins Daniel and Caitlin were born on November 9, 2012 at 23 weeks and six days.

They were given a very small chance of surviving and were seriously ill for a long time.

However, they managed to pull through and recently celebrated their third birthdays.

Kayleigh said she has received a lot of help and support from her local centre at Stopsley Baptist Church.

She said: "Hopefully they can take the petition into consideration when they make the decision."

"I think a lot of people do not know about it.

"The reason I knew was that I wanted to start a group for premature babies but the staff at the centre said they could not do it because they were under review. It means a lot to me and my friends and we want to do what we can to keep them open."

A council spokesman said the authority was 'absolutely committed to giving Luton's young children the very best start in life' but added that officers needed to cut £1 million from children's centres in order to meet 'challenging savings targets'.

Terrorism arrest

A MAN was arrested in Luton's Claremont Road on Thursday on suspicion of terrorism offences.

A spokeswoman for Metropolitan Police said: "Officers from the Met's Counter Terrorism Command (S015) attended a residential address and conducted a search under schedule 5 of Terrorism Act 2000. A 30-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of being a member of proscribed organisation." He was taken to a Central London Police Station.

Mr & Mrs Shukra of Ravenbank Road, Luton chose Kingsbourne Windows to replace their draughty old wooden window frames.

Mr Shukra says "with so many glazing companies out there, we wanted a local long established company that make their own 'A' rated products at a price we could afford. Now after being superbly installed by their own top quality fitters, we would love to recommend Kingsbourne Windows to all our family and friends".

Shane Putney with Mrs Shukra

Callous pair jailed for baby's death

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A MOTHER and a grandmother have been jailed for a total of 16 years for causing the death of a seven-month-old baby.

Baby Imran was tragically found dead at his house in Luton on 17 January, 2014. On October 28 this year, his mother, Jessica Price, 24, and his grandmother, Angela Price, both of Morris Close, were found guilty of causing his death.

On Wednesday they were each sentenced at Luton Crown Court to eight years in prison.

Detective Inspector Alan Page, of the Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Hertfordshire Major Crime Unit, said: "This was an absolutely heart-wrenching case involving the tragic death of an innocent baby, as a result of the actions of two of the people who were meant to love him the most."

"Imran was wilfully neglected at the hands of his mother and grandmother, to the extent that he lost 17 per

"Had it not been for the cruel and callous neglect by these cold-hearted individuals, then I believe that Imran would still be alive today."

Jessica Price was found guilty of three counts of cruelty to a child by failing to provide him with adequate food or drink, and failing to obtain adequate medical aid

Angela Price was found guilty of two counts of cruelty to a child, one of causing or allowing the death of a child, and one of causing or allowing a child to suffer serious physical harm.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Council shells out for the homeless

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THOUSANDS of pounds are being spent on keeping families in hotels as the council struggles to cope with the housing crisis.

Luton Borough Council said it was spending an average of £90 per night to house families in hotels.

A council document published last week stated more than 800 households were homeless. A spokesman said most of these families were living in other sources of temporary accommodation such as private housing.

Luton on Sunday spoke to a family of three, including two children under 11, who were recently promised a house after spending more than two months living first at the Holiday Inn at Luton Airport and then the Hilton on Kimpton Road.

The parent, who did not want to be named, estimated that the council was paying between £1,000-£800 for the three-star hotels.

She said: "Last week they moved me from the Holiday Inn to the Hilton."

They said it was because the Holiday Inn did not want any council people. There are a few other families also living there."

LoS asked Luton council how much it was spending on families living at Hilton and Holiday Inn but no figure was given. A spokesman said the authority was working on 'several initiatives' aimed at tackling the housing shortage.

THIS week's photo was sent in by a reader concerned about the parking outside St Margaret's School in Farley Hill.

He said it's a common problem and is just getting worse and more frequent and has urged Luton Borough Council to take action.

It has been a busy week helping students as they create short films and trailers, but in a rare lull Phil Dickson-Earle, senior media technician at Luton Sixth Form College, had a few moments to catch up on the latest happenings in last week's edition of Luton on Sunday. Just a few weeks ago Phil was volunteering as a minder for journalists at two Rugby World Cup games held at Wembley stadium.

BLOGGER OF THE WEEK: Junior Badila - AUK Radio

Let's protect our children

BROADCASTER and community worker Junior Badila wants to raise awareness about the work being done to protect vulnerable children living in our community. In this week's blog he reflects on the efforts that have gone into tackling abuse linked to religious belief

CHILD abuse cuts across culture, faith and social class, even though official statistics in the UK indicate a disproportionate representation of black African children in the social care system.

The death of Victoria Climbié in 2000 at the hands of her guardians, the case of an eight-year-old Angolan girl who was dumped on a Hackney street in a laundry bag, and the killing in 2010 of Kristy Bamu – who was subjected to a prolonged attack of unspeakable savagery and brutality by his older sister and her partner following accusations of witchcraft – caused public outcry, particularly in the black community.

Following a roundtable meeting chaired by the then Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Children and Families, Tim Loughton, in February 2011, a National Working Group was set up to develop a national action plan called the 'National Action Plan to Tackle Child Abuse Linked to Faith or Belief'.

This action plan was intended to help raise awareness of child abuse linked to faith or belief and to encourage that practical steps be taken to prevent it.

The plan has been developed through partnerships between central government, local statutory partners, faith leaders, voluntary sector organisations and the police.

It is not about challenging people's beliefs but where beliefs lead to abuse, which must not be tolerated.

The plan aims to address certain kinds of child abuse linked to faith or belief.

This includes belief in witchcraft, spirit possession and the use of fear of the supernatural to make children comply with being trafficked for domestic slavery or sexual exploitation.

The beliefs which are the focus of this action plan are not confined to one faith, nationality or ethnic community. In Luton the Protect Project was instituted as a response to this plan.

It is grassroots initiative aimed at protecting African children from the practices of faith and ritualistic child abuse. It is aimed at developing the capacity of parents to safeguard children and encourages the UK's African community to honour their faiths, cultures and raise their voices against child abuse.

Throughout this year the project has organised workshops and training sessions to develop and strengthen community-based preventive activities. This is to protect the rights of African children and to ensure their safety, with a particular focus on tackling faith-based abuse.

It was funded by the Big Lottery's Awards for All and recently a conference was held at The Chiltern Hotel to mark its conclusion.

Councillor Mahmood Hussain, the portfolio holder for Children and Young People at Luton Borough Council, attended the conference and handed out certificates to the trainees.

He encouraged them to work together with the local authority to safeguard children.

Betrayal of faith

WE have all heard about Muslims, often with impeccable backgrounds, who have become terrorists after having been secretly 'radicalised'.

Much less seems to be known about those who carry out this procedure; yet identifying and stopping them is a vital key to defeating terrorism.

Most Muslims express horror at the actions of terrorists which are totally alien to their own beliefs.

To the vast majority of Muslims, murder is just as abhorrent as it is to those of any other religion. It is a betrayal of their faith. And to do it in the name of their faith, far from excusing the crime, makes the betrayal worse: it brings Islam itself into disrepute. Encouraging another person to commit murder is just as bad as the act itself.

Therefore, anyone who suspects someone else of committing murder, or encouraging another person to do so, for whatever reason, has a duty to report that suspect.

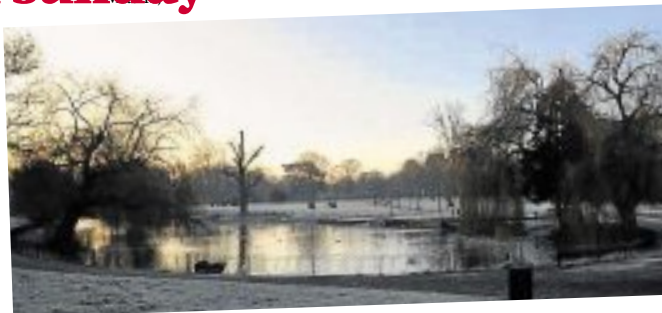

The police can then follow the matter up and take the action necessary to benefit us all.

Protect wildlife

TO most, Christmas means spending time with the people we love, in the place we love best - our home, wherever that might be.

But home means more than bricks and mortar or even friends and family. Our planet is the home that every living creature shares with us, and if we want our loved ones to enjoy it for generations to come, we need to take better care of it.

That's why this festive period I want everyone to spare a thought for the incredible wildlife that needs our help. The situation is urgent.

The challenges are huge. But with your help, together with WWF, we can create a better future.

Show the world some love this Christmas by visiting: worldneed-slove.wwf.org.uk and tell me what you'd like to protect with #WorldNeedsLove

TAPED OFF: Police cordoned off the scene, while closing the car park

Car park cordoned off after suspected suicide at Mall

A PERSON died in a suspected suicide after emergency services were called to a serious incident at a shopping centre on Wednesday.

Bedfordshire Police confirmed they were called at about 7.30am to reports of 'concern for the welfare of a person at The Mall car park' in Silver Street.

A spokesman for The Mall added: "We can confirm that there was a suspected suicide at the central car park of The Mall Luton this morning and that an individual was fatally injured. The matter is in the hands of the emergency services and our immediate thoughts are with the family and friends."

The car park was closed then reopened later that day.

Teacher shortage is down to 'image'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE town is having a 'serious problem' attracting teachers and social workers because of its negative image, a senior councillor has said.

Councillor Mahmood Hussain said a collective effort was needed to showcase more of the town's benefits and opportunities.

Research by TeachVac, a search engine for teaching jobs, showed that since January this year, Luton schools have advertised twice the number of jobs as the national average.

In total, 146 teaching roles were advertised in Luton this year, with maths, science and English experiencing the highest shortage.

John Howson, director of TeachVac, said the town's proximity to London meant some teachers preferred working in the capital.

Cllr Hussain added: "We are desperately short of social workers for children and adults and we are also having a serious problem attracting teachers to the town."

"We are trying to make the place attractive and trying to improve the image of the town."

"It has all the infrastructure in terms of being close to London and the airport."

"The house prices are still reasonable compared to London boroughs and the rest of Bedfordshire, but we are still having a serious problem attracting these sort of professionals."

Cancelled flights ruin holiday plans

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

GETAWAY plans were scuppered for thousands of would-be holidaymakers this week after Luton firm easyJet cancelled flights to Sharm el-Sheikh until January.

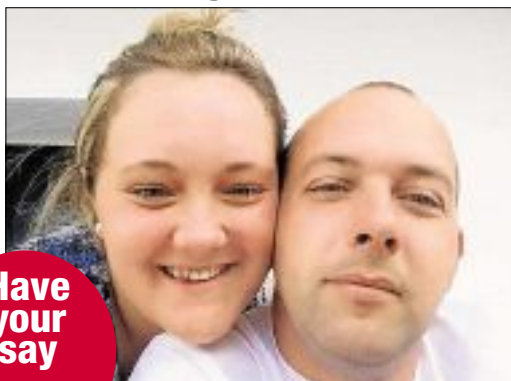

Katie Dellow, from Pulloxhill, was due to go away for Christmas with her partner Paul and his mother after they booked a week's holiday at the Egyptian resort back in October, flying out from Luton Airport.

She said: "I've spoken to easyJet and they're happy to refund holiday."

"We've looked at other options and it's around £600 more for a week away from the 23rd to the 30th."

"I'd like to go, but it will be a stretch and probably isn't going to happen if I'm realistic."

"My partner's Mum has dementia and we've been trying to get her to understand and look forward to going away for Christmas but now it's not going to happen."

Have your say

Go to luton-dunstable.co.uk

DISAPPOINTED: Katie and Paul are unable to go away with flights to Sharm el-Sheikh cancelled

"We've never been away for Christmas and were really excited about the chance to do that."

The airline cancelled all flights to and from Sharm el Sheikh in Egypt over the Christmas period, following the Sinai plane crash on October 31 which killed 224 people.

This was extended until January 6 on Tuesday morning, with the airline citing safety as its main concern and reason.

On its website, easyJet said: "We are sorry for the inconvenience this will obviously cause, but we hope that being clear with all our customers at this point helps you to manage your plans with more certainty."

"The situation is beyond our control and passenger safety will always be our number one priority."

InterviewLuton

DESPITE having lived in Luton for the past 15 years, Amanda Alexander says the cold weather is the one thing she is yet to embrace.

She came to the UK from Trinidad and Tobago in 2000 aged 10 with her older brother Alon to join her parents who had come the year before.

It was a big change for someone who had spent early life enjoying in the Caribbean island sun.

Amanda says: "My childhood was not WhatsApp, SnapChat or Instagram - it was very much running up and down, and running around the green bungalow with my friends."

"We had a massive almond tree in front of our house and it was iconic in our street because if you were lost, you would be told, 'look for the almond tree'."

"Everyone in the neighbourhood would say, 'look for the almond tree, and I'll meet you there'."

Growing up, Amanda says she was 'too busy any long-term goals and ambitions.'

Although her mother's nursing job appealed to her, nothing came of that attraction.

"Both of us looked up to our mum so much, and she was my everything, she was my rock and everything", she says.

"I am a Daddy's girl, but in terms of having a lady, my mum was it. She just used to tell me things that a lady should hear, you know, but at the same time, if my mum didn't agree with something, I would just talk to my dad!"

When the time came to join her parents in the UK in 2000, Amanda says she cried whilst saying goodbye because unlike the ferry holidays her family had been on, she knew there was no coming back.

How long did it take her to settle in the UK?

"Settled? I'm still not settled now, Carl!", she says. "I'm telling you, I've been here 15 years, and I'm still not settled now. That's really bizarre, right?"

"Because I'm used to the cold, but I don't like the cold."

When Amanda came to the UK she joined her parents in Luton. She attended school in Harpenden before being transferred to Challney Girls High School when the traveling became too much.

After high school she took a gap year to work out her next move, a period during which she says she cried and felt 'really, really clueless'. Eventually, she chose Spa Management at University College Birmingham.

However, the year before starting university she had made her first trip back to T&T and although she initially had another weather-related struggle, the journey awoke something in her.

"I was just like, 'OK, now, I should be used to this, my skin should be used to this,' but I wasn't. When we were going out my mum would see this person and that person but I was trying to find shade every single time."

"I was wearing a massive hat and was like a proper foreigner in my own country. It was just amazing and sometimes I would think to myself, this is your country, this is where you're from; you need to learn about it."

From 2010 Amanda returned every year until 2014 when she decided to focus on finding work a year after graduating and taking a break. She became a therapist at the Essence of

HAPPY: Recent developments have left Amanda feeling 'blessed'

Beauty salon in Bedford and worked her way up to being involved in management before leaving to pursue nursing at the Luton & Dunstable Hospital earlier this month.

Amanda attributes her newly discovered sense of direction to her Christian faith which she says has played a big part in her life.

What has she learnt from her journey?

"I can say that I'm really happy", Amanda says.

"When I think back to that 10-year-old who was without her mum, being on that plane for the first time, taking advantage of having cakes and sweets and everything on the plane, pressing the button to ask for a pillow or movie, looking back on that I feel so blessed.

"I feel I am so lucky to have two places with two sets of family and extended families. One actually related to you in Trinidad & Tobago and the other in England where you have a vast amount of mentors and positive people around you."

"I feel so blessed because you can have either or you can bring them together".

Ibrahim's smile is worth everything

CHRISTMAS
STARS

For Ibrahim Saeed and his mum, from Bishopscote Road in Luton, this Christmas will be one of hope and prayer.

Ibrahim, 12, is supported by Keech Hospice Care in Luton. He has Cockayne Syndrome, an illness that affects his kidneys, and which his two sisters and one brother have already died from.

Despite all of this his mum, Amina Saeed, 50, said Ibrahim is always smiling.

"He's a good boy," said Amina. "He loves going to school and he started his first year at Woodland Secondary School in Luton this year.

"I guess life has been quite hard. My other son passed away at the age of eight and my daughters were 15 and 11 when they died.

"Ibrahim remembers my youngest daughter Zuharah – they used to come to Keech together and spend the day playing and having fun, which gave me the time to myself which I needed.

"Keech helped me a lot when Zuharah died. The Keech nurses went to the hospital when Zuharah was very ill, and afterwards they continued to support me and my family at a time in our lives we needed it most.

"I have to admit, I wasn't sure if Keech was a place I wanted to come to when I first heard about the charity, but we've been coming here for eight years now. It's a big part of our lives," Amina said.

This Christmas, Amina is taking Ibrahim to Umrah, a pilgrimage to Mecca in Saudi Arabia.

"It will be very special as I'm spending more time with Ibrahim and making the most of what time we have left together," Amina said.

"As Muslims, we do not celebrate Christmas in the traditional sense but if we were here in Luton we would have all the family together and round the table for dinner on Christmas Day.

"Two years ago Ibrahim was very ill and the doctor said he only had six months to live. He

"If Ibrahim is smiling, I think everything is OK. I think about my other children every day and my only hope for next year is for Ibrahim to get better and have a longer life – that's my hope, nothing else.

This Christmas I will say a prayer and pray for everybody in the world, pray for those who are cared for and supported by Keech and pray for Ibrahim.

Why we're backing the appeal

THE season of goodwill is almost upon us.

For many, this means heading out to the shops armed with a long list of presents for loved ones.

But goodwill doesn't have to end in the department store.

Just down the road from where you are reading this, doctors and nurses are trying to give children suffering serious illnesses the chance of a future.

And they need our help. Luton on Sunday has supported Keech Hospice, in Great Bramingham Lane, for many years with donations of craft materials and toys over the festive season.

This year, we are asking for your help to raise vital funds for Keech with our Christmas Stars appeal.

Every week between now and Christmas, this newspaper will be telling the story of a Luton child who has been helped by the team at the Hospice. We will be hearing from the families who rely on the service and about what the future holds for these incredible children.

We are asking our readers to donate as much as they can afford by filling in the form below and sending it Freepost to the address below, or by texting KHCS15 and your amount, to 70070.

We will, of course, bring you regular updates to let you know how much we have raised.

Thank you and Merry Christmas!

Warning after spate of Corsa parts thefts

ANOTHER wave of thefts of parts from Vauxhall Corsas has led to police issuing a warning.

This follows an increase in reports of thefts across Bedfordshire.

Detective Chief Inspector Ian Middleton said: "We have seen a rise in the theft of bumpers, seats and bonnets from Vauxhalls, as well as some incidents in which an entire car has been stolen from driveways and later found stripped of parts.

"We want to increase awareness among the public of these crimes and encourage them to report any illegal or suspicious activity."

Vauxhall has said there is no security issue with its cars and that a determined thief can steal parts from any type of car.

Spike in firefighter call outs to Zafiras

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

FIREFIGHTERS are receiving more call outs to incidents involving Vauxhall Zafira B cars, it has emerged.

London Fire Brigade said it had noticed a 'big spike' in calls to fires involving the cars made by the Luton-based manufacturer.

In 2013 and 2014 the brigade attended 50 incidents, compared to the previous four years total of just 38 incidents.

Furthermore, this year alone it has been called out to 21 Vauxhall Zafira fires.

Earlier this month Vauxhall's new chairman, Rory Harvey, announced an investigation into the vehicles was being done 'very thoroughly and with the utmost urgency'.

The car-maker has recalled 220,000 Zafira B models which were built between 2005 and 2014.

Sue Freemantle, 37, a Plymouth mum who started a campaign calling for something to be done about the cars after hers caught fire, said the figures were 'outrageous'.

She added: "I find it baffling that London's fire brigade had those numbers and Vauxhall, a massive company, still did not know about it. There needs to be a massive change in the Government's system so information like this is passed onto major companies."

Vauxhall said it understood the 'seriousness of the situation' and owners' concerns.

ALADDIN: PANTO SPECIAL

The genie is out of her bottle

ALADDIN MK THEATRE
DECEMBER 5-31

OH no she isn't.

Oh yes she is. Former wife of the King Elvis Presley and Dallas actress Priscilla Presley will be starring in Milton Keynes Theatre's family-friendly festive production of Aladdin.

She will be making wishes come true by bringing all the magic of the Christmas season to life as the 'Genie of the Lamp'.

Hollywood royalty Priscilla confessed her first experience of pantomime was 'horrifying', but is looking forward to her role in Aladdin at Milton Keynes Theatre.

Priscilla played the evil queen in Snow White and the Seven Dwarves in Manchester last year, but the 70-year-old admitted her first experience of pantomime terrified her.

Speaking to Bedfordshire on Sunday, she said: "My first experience of pantomime was horrifying! I was so nervous, I didn't know quite what to expect.

"I knew about the booing, but I didn't know about the bantering. People can tell you about it, but to experience it was a lot different so it was quite a journey. Once I got used to it, it was a lot of fun and I guess I'm a glutton for punishment because I'm back!

"I love the audience participation and the reaction of the crowd, and I love to see their faces when they're enjoying the performances and the play."

Priscilla will be joined on stage by Ben Adams, Kev Orkian, Wayne Sleep, and Gary Wilmot.

The actress has begun rehearsals with her colleagues, and can't wait to get to start in a role she hopes all audiences will enjoy.

She added: "I truly can't ask for a better cast, and I can't wait to really get into it."

"The Genie of the Lamp is a bit different to the role I played before as the evil queen. She was a real baddie and I loved that!

"We have some surprises with The Genie. She's a bit flirtatious and sweet at times, but I think the audience will like her - I hope!

"My grandchildren absolutely love seeing me on stage and I can't wait to get in front of a live audience again.

It's such a wonderful honour to be spending Christmas here and being part of this very special British festive tradition."

To book tickets for the panto, priced from £13.90, visit atgtickets.com or phone 0844 871 7615.

The production's first show is this Friday and runs until January 10, with afternoon (1.30 or 2.30pm) and evening performances each day (5.30 or 7.30pm).

Wayne on pointe for magical pantomime

HE once worked magic by turning plus-size amateur dancers into elegant ballerinas, but this time around Wayne Sleep will be working the magic on himself as he transforms into the genie of the ring for this year's panto in Milton Keynes.

So why enter into the fairytale world of Aladdin?

"I did Cinderella in Wimbledon with the management last year and they treated me so well they offered me another part this time around so I took it," says Sleep.

"I've just been to India so I think I'll use my experiences there to bring something different to the role." Sleep has often missed out on leading roles in his career due to his height but on this occasion it's undeniable he's scored the best job of all as Genie of the Ring.

"Genie suits me down to the ground. He can talk his way through things, he's magical and I love that and it will be great for the children."

"You have to remember first and foremost this is family entertainment, it is for kids and is the first piece of theatre they will probably see so it's important it is done well."

Ben's laughing as Aladdin

PANTO is a rite of passage for celebrities, and one that Ben Adams from boyband A1 embraces as he takes on the title role of Aladdin at MK Theatre this year.

Ben said: "Panto is a really great and Christmassy thing."

"I love the mix of honour as there is something for the kids, but also those risqué jokes that go over their heads that the parents enjoy."

He added: "The best thing about being Aladdin you are not really responsible for the humour, but we have some huge comedic personalities for that."

Roald's classic is set to be a peach

JAMES AND THE
GIANT PEACH
UKCCA
DECEMBER 16

FOR one night only the University of Bedfordshire and the Novus Theatre company are joining forces in a production of James and the Giant Peach.

The play will be part of a Roald Dahl reading week during which the university is throwing open its doors to over 2,000 local primary school children, with a series of interactive workshops and a performance of the Giant Peach at the UK Centre Carnival Arts.

It will be the university's first ever Roald Dahl reading week, but for Novus it will be another step on their journey which started in 2012 with a show at the Place Theatre in Bedford.

In December 2013, Novus produced their first family show, The Twits, at the Sharnbrook Mill theatre, and it was performed to over 800 people in three days.

It was also the first educational project the theatre company had done with local schools across the week.

The story centres around a young English orphan boy, called James, who has to live with his unpleasant aunts after his parents die. Whilst there, he stumbles across a strange old man who gives him the recipe for a magic potion which, when drunk, is supposed to bring him happiness and great adventures.

However, James accidentally spills some of it on a barren peach tree and in doing so creates a gigantic peach. It sets him off on a wild and surreal cross-world adventure with seven magically-altered garden bugs.

Roisin Kendall, the access partnership manager at Bedfordshire, and one of the organisers of the event, said she hoped the play would encourage more children to take up reading.

She added that the play, which will also be open to members of the public, would be a 'great end of term treat for all the family'.

"This will be outreach in action, designed for local primary children in Luton to become engaged, enthused and inspired by the fantastic literary works of Roald Dahl.

"Through a series of plays and interactive workshops we aim to instill confidence and aspiration in reading and writing, to support children to become independent readers outside of the school environment."

People right across the university will be getting involved in the event, with staff and students dressing up as their favourite character, as well filming short video clips where they choose their favourite Roald Dahl book.

Tickets are priced at £6 per adult, £5 child or £20 for a family ticket (two adults, two children or one adult, three children). The show begins at 6pm.

To book your tickets please contact rdw@beds.ac.uk or call the box office on 01582 743695. Payment can be taken over the phone or on the night.

What's hot in Luton

COMEDIAN Josh Widdicombe is back on the road with a brand new tour and he is bringing it to The Grove. The award-winning comic has been away from stand up working on other projects, but he is back with a lot to talk about. Anecdotes and stories about the myriad of minor things which have annoyed him will be the order of the day. Tickets to the show cost £16.50 and can be booked over the phone by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

TOMORROW'S Music on Monday group the Britten Oboe Quartet will be playing a programme of Mozart, Elizabeth Lutyens and Rutland Boughton. The concert includes the world premiere of work by composers Colin Hazel and Peter Whittle. Tickets for the Library Theatre show cost £5.

Join the Salvation Army tonight at 6pm at the Grove Theatre for their annual carol concert. The evening will feature Salvation Army members and children from two local schools offering music, drama and dance. Tickets cost £10 and under-16s pay £5. Profits from the show go to local charities.

Home to a Dunkirk hero

OPERATION Dynamo, which saw the evacuation of more than 350,000 British, French and Belgian troops from Dunkirk, helped the Allies continue the war and gave a major boost to British morale.

Its success was due in large part to war hero Dunkirk Joe – Admiral William Tennant – who oversaw the exodus, staying right to the end, patrolling the length of the beach and calling through a megaphone “Are there any British soldiers still ashore?”

As beach master, he organised the tired and dispirited troops, getting them aboard the famous armada of small boats that had sailed for England in 1940 to rescue them.

Later in the war, during the D-Day landings in 1944, Tennant was in charge of setting up the Mulberry harbours – essential for the off-loading of cargo and supplies, and the Pluto pipelines. After retirement, he came back to live in the family home at Upton-upon-Severn until his death at the age of 73 in 1963.

Grade II listed The Eades stands in more than 15 acres of grounds, and is up for sale at £1.25m.

Inside there's six bedrooms and three bathrooms while outside, there's a swimming pool area in need of some TLC as well as the Coach House, a three bedroom property, and Stable Cottage, a two bedroom home that's let on an assured shorthold tenancy.

A small vineyard in the garden produces rosé wine, while eight acres of land are under contract to Bulmers Cider giving an income of about £5,000.

Is this England's most literary address?

HERE'S your chance to live in the original Toad Hall which has inspired famous novels and hosted royalty.

Hardwick House, with its towering chimneys and lead-glass windows, is the real deal when it comes to Elizabethan architecture. Its oak-panelled drawing room features a ceiling plaster cast of Queen Elizabeth I, who stayed here once.

Fast-car loving, goggle-wearing Sir Charles Rose – great-grandfather of the current owner and a good friend of Kenneth Grahame – provided inspiration for the character of Mr Toad in The Wind in the Willows. The house is also mentioned in Jerome K Jerome's 1889 classic Three Men in a Boat, while the author Henry James set the first scene of Portrait of a Lady in its gardens.

This 900-acre forestry and farming estate in Whitchurch-on-Thames has been in the same family for years, but the East Wing is now available to let for the first time. It boasts a grand hall, drawing room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and cellar.

On the first floor there's an oak panelled reception room as well as two bedrooms, two bathrooms and a utility room, with another five bedrooms upstairs.

It's available to let for £5,000 a month, plus £1,000 fees to cover gardening, cleaning and bills each month.

House where Lennon wrote Sgt Pepper

INSPIRATION: John Lennon, inset, wrote Sgt Pepper while he lived at Kenwood in Surrey

It looks like a respectable family home in swanky suburbia, but this sprawling mock-Tudor property has a rock n' roll history to die for.

It was here during the late 1960s that John Lennon created a bohemian haven for himself, wife Cynthia and son Julian, penning some of the Beatles' best known work, including much of the Sgt. Pepper album.

Female fans were usually hanging around at the gates and famous friends and visitors such as the rest of the Fab Four, Bob Dylan, Michael Nesmith of the Monkees and Peter Cook would regularly rock up.

Lennon had a room at the top of the house where he kept most of his musical equipment, writing and recording on tape recorders. The cover photograph for Rubber Soul was taken here, Lennon parked his garishly decorated Rolls-Royce in the drive, and for a while an enormous model shoe, used as a prop in the film Help!, sat on the lawn.

Kenwood in Weybridge, Surrey, cost the singer £20,000 in July 1964, but he'd sold it by 1968, after starting a relationship with Yoko Ono.

Ringo Starr also lived in Surrey until last year. But his former property - Sunny Heights, also in the exclusive St Georges Hill estate, is reported to be set for demolition after being bought by a Russian billionaire.

Lennon's former home is now a state-of-the-art family home with six bedrooms and six bathrooms. Set in about 1.5 acres, there's plenty of parking and guest accommodation, with large gardens and new indoor swimming pool complex. It's on the market for £10.5m.

GOSSIP

Billy Fury's birding bolthole

BILLY Fury was often described as Britain's answer to Elvis and was such a big star back in the 1960s that The Beatles once tried out as his backing band.

When he held auditions in Liverpool, among those who didn't make the grade were The Beatles – still calling themselves the Silver Beetles – who were offered the job for £20 a week on condition that they sacked their bassist Stuart Sutcliffe. John Lennon refused and the band left after Lennon had got Fury's autograph.

Earlier this year, the Billy Fury movie was released, examining the Liverpool-born singer's short life. Born Ronald Wycherley, Fury equalled the Beatles' record of 24 hits in the 1960s, with songs including Halfway to Paradise and Jealousy. However, his career stalled in the following decade, and in the mid-1970s Fury went out on the road with Marty Wilde. In 1978 he was declared bankrupt and died in 1983, aged just 42.

Away from the spotlight, a little at odds with his racy stage persona, Fury was a keen birdwatcher, and used a three-storey folly in the back garden of his house in Crugybar, Llanwrda, as a bird-watching tower.

Now on the market for £475,000, this four-bedroom detached house set in three acres, was Fury's home from 1974 to 1983. It has two recently converted stone barns which are let out as holiday accommodation, and prove popular with his fans.

The house also has a garage/stable block, log cabin, kitchen garden and duck pond.

A hall with a spirited history in England during the Norman Conquest. Although heavily involved in smuggling, The Boys were an important and influential family and one of Thomas's brothers was Archdeacon of Canterbury Cathedral, where the family have their own vault.

The 10-bedroom house set in 2.75 acres in Willesborough, near Ashford – now on the market for £2.25m – includes a reception hall, three cloakrooms, drawing room, study, bar/sitting room, dining room and kitchen, as well as a conservatory with covered indoor swimming pool. It also boasts a three room cellar, including a wine cellar and another compartment with the remnants of a secret passage which once led to Sevington Church.

Outside there's a Victorian stable block, large walled garden and former hard tennis court.

www.savills.com, 01580 720161

CHARLES I is thought to have stayed at this Jacobean mansion while fleeing to France and Samuel Pepys was another of its famous visitors.

In recent years it's proved a popular wedding venue, hosting parties and welcoming paying guests – but it could also be home to a few unwelcome ones too.

There've been a number of ghostly sightings at Boys Hall, the most popular being John the drunk, a young woman and a stable master named Thomas.

People have also reported being touched and that pictures refuse to stay up in some parts of the house. The hall even appeared on TV show Most Haunted a few years back.

The Grade II listed property was built in 1616 by Thomas and Margaret Boys, descendants of the De Bois family, who landed

New Fiat Spider brings back best in Italian style and flair

Almost 50 years since the original was introduced, the FIAT 124 Spider is back! True to its celebrated nameplate, the all-new FIAT 124 Spider brings classic Italian styling and pure driving pleasure to a new generation, with its powerful turbo-charged petrol engine, sophisticated suspension and traditional rear-wheel drive layout.

Designed at Centro Stile in Turin, Italy, the new FIAT 124 Spider takes its inspiration from the 1966 original, not only in terms of its proportions and stance but also in terms of its detailing. A horizontal line emerges from the front wing, kicking up over the rear haunch and flowing toward the tail lamp, aping the distinctive bodywork of the original car, while the style and position of the LED headlamps, and the hexagonal upper grille, both draw heavily from the details of the classic roadster.

The bonnet of the new sports car also emulates the twin power domes of the second-generation FIAT 124 Spider (a functional design feature necessitated by the fitment of larger engines) while the rear view is defined by two main features: the "seagull" wings, the upper surface of which fall inward toward the decklid, and the sharp horizontal tail lamps, which incorporate a new FIAT stylistic sign of body-coloured inserts launched with the new FIAT 500.

An integrated rear spoiler enhances the aerodynamic performance of the new FIAT 124 Spider, while twin exhaust outlets underline the performance capability of the engine.

The interior of the new FIAT 124 Spider, in keeping with the exterior, mixes Italian style with the classic ingredients of a driver-focussed roadster. The low-slung seats are comprised of a lightweight net structure with a unique foam shape and are trimmed in premium upholstery, aligning the driver perfectly with the sporty steering wheel and ideally-located pedals and gear-shifter.

The three-gauge instrument cluster with its central rev-counter hints at the excitement awaiting the driver, while soft-touch materials and unique detailing set it apart as a high-quality and elegant roadster in the tradition of its best Italian predecessors.

With the roof retracted and the side windows rolled down, the aerodynamics around the rearward-mounted windscreen frame of the FIAT 124 Spider have been optimised to guide the wind above the heads of occupants and towards the rear of the car, minimising both the amount of wind striking occupants directly and drafts buffeting from behind.

The FIAT 124 Spider is more than an exercise in nostalgic roof-down style – under the bonnet lies FIAT's venerable 1.4-litre MultiAir Turbo engine producing 140hp and 240Nm of torque, driving the rear wheels for the first time via a lightweight, quick-shifting six-speed manual transmission, specially optimised for this high torque output.

The FIAT 124 Spider will go on sale in the UK during the second half of 2016.

Vauxhall Astra

Take a look inside...

The seventh generation version of Vauxhall's Astra family hatch manages to be better equipped, more efficient and more spacious than its predecessor, while in some cases actually costing less than it did before. Think that sounds promising? Then like us, you might think that this could be the toughest rival yet for the segment-leading Ford Focus.

The engineers have created a completely fresh platform for this MK7 model Astra but it isn't one featuring the multi-link rear suspension set-up that does so much to make a rival Ford Focus ride and handle so sweetly. The downside of that kind of arrangement lies not only in its cost but also in the way it intrudes on bootspace (which is why a Focus' boot is so relatively small). Hence the decision with this Astra to stick with the previous model's relatively simple torsion beam rear suspension system, a set-up enhanced with a so-called 'Watts linkage' feature to improve cornering stability.

Most Astra buyers are probably going to want a diesel. The old 1.3, 1.7 and 2.0-litre CDTi units have at last been pensioned off and in their place sits the quieter, torquier 1.6-litre CDTi diesel, offered here with either 110 or 136PS in mainstream form or with as much as 160PS in BiTurbo form at the top of the range. Both petrols and diesels should benefit from an all new six speed gearbox that should make for sweeter shifts.

The bodyshell of the Astra is 77kgs lighter than before, thanks to smaller dimensions and more high strength steels which contribute to weight savings over the previous model of between 120 and 200kg.

Inside, despite the reduction in exterior size, you get an additional 35mm of rear legroom compared to the old car. Move up-front and there's the expected smarter fascia with splashes of chrome and the expected standard touchscreen infotainment screen that as usual reduces dashboard button clutter. For the first time, the General Motors 'OnStar' system is available, the set-up providing an in-car Wi-Fi hotspot and 24/7 assistance from a dedicated service team.

This is a car that feels quite up to the challenge posed by an army of efficient, plush and dynamically able rivals.

Award-Winning All-New Nissan NP300 Navara Wins Again

The all-new Nissan NP300 Navara has won the coveted International Pick-up award 2016 at a ceremony in Lyon, France. Nissan's recently-launched pick-up fought off stiff competition from the Mitsubishi L200 and Ford Ranger with judges praising its superior on-road and off-road capabilities, strong engine performance and payload capacity. The new NP300 Navara underwent the rigorous International Pick-up testing process, each being judged for its off-road ability, on-road performance and its value for money. They were also tested on their ability as a workhorse, which included comparing towing capabilities. The new NP300 Navara delivers new levels of crossover-inspired comfort and refinement while maintaining the Navara's acclaimed off-road ability, durability and load capacity.

Dacia Duster Wins

The Dacia Duster has won the Small SUV class at the fifth annual Green Apple Awards at an awards ceremony held at the Houses of Parliament in London. The 'shockingly affordable' Duster, in dCi 110 4x2 guise, was voted into first place by judges thanks to its efficient performance, value for money and high specification. The automotive-based honours at The Green Apple Awards, organised by the Midlands-based The Green Organisation, are judged by members of the Midland Group of Motoring Writers. Marks were awarded by judges for the way a car drives and behaves in the real world, away from the testing laboratory.

Breaking back into big time

We all love a good sporting comeback.

The most thrilling Champions League finals came when Manchester United and Liverpool rose from the dead in 1999 and 2005 respectively to pick up the biggest club trophy in football.

France's burst of 33 unanswered points after falling 24-10 behind to New Zealand in the semi-finals of the 1999 Rugby World Cup was so thrilling, virtually the whole of Twickenham got behind them.

Sailing's America's Cup hasn't always got that much attention on these shores, but Sir Ben Ainslie's helping Oracle Team USA come back from 8-1 down to defend their title against Team New Zealand in 2013 made plenty of people sit up.

Looking further back, England's sensational victory in the 1981 Ashes Test at Headingley has yet to be matched, while even the Luton fans who weren't born at the time go all misty-eyed, thinking of the Hatters coming from behind to beat Arsenal in the 1988 League Cup final.

It happens on an individual level as well, such as Ronaldo scoring two goals to win the 2002 World Cup for Brazil four years after suffering a fit before the final of that competition's previous edition.

This weekend could see the culmination of a comeback five years in the making that combines both elements – a team being driven on by one world-class individual.

The Davis Cup for years gave us a barometer as to how low Great Britain had sunk in the tennis pecking order, with 'giants' like Ecuador and Israel getting the better of them.

The nadir undoubtedly came in March 2010, when GB lost 3-2 to Lithuania in the first round in Group II of the Euro/Africa zone, the third tier of the competition.

Under captain Leon Smith, it has been a meteoric rise since and it has led to them reaching their first final in 37 years against Belgium, which has been taking place throughout the weekend.

While there have been outstanding contributions along the way from the likes of Dan Evans and James Ward, it can't be denied their run has been founded on the brilliance of Andy Murray.

I find it staggering that there are those that still question him – given what he has achieved – and he has been Great Britain's iron man during their last few ties.

Let's also give credit to his older brother Jamie, who has had a very successful year in Doubles, which includes reaching the final in two Grand Slams.

While we can't say lifting the trophy (good luck with that lads, it's rather big) would mark the resurrection of British men's tennis as the depth of talent still isn't there, it would still represent a remarkable ascension from the depths it once plumbed.

Whatever the outcome in Ghent, it's been quite a ride.

Thurrock deny Luton their first win of the campaign

RUGBY REVIEW

Luton were within minutes of securing their first win of the league campaign, losing 25-22 to Thurrock in the closing stages having been ahead by 22-18 with just a few minutes left on the clock.

Thurrock opened the scoring, going over inside the first five minutes. Though Luton were unfortunate not to turn things right around as Rik Hobbs went close with a penalty, then closer still as he struck the post, on the half hour it was third time lucky for Hobbs as he was on target to reduce the deficit to 5-3, which was how it remained until half time.

After the restart Chris Davies crossed the white-wash for Luton, giving them a deserved 8-5 lead, though Thurrock kicked a penalty to level the game at 8-8. Robert Povey intercepted and scored Luton's second try, converted by Hobbs, as Luton went 15-8 ahead with 20 minutes left.

Thurrock levelled things up minutes later, only for Hobbs to put Luton's noses in front from a penalty with ten minutes to play, however, with two minutes on the clock Thurrock touched down, adding the conversion to steal the game – Luton having to make do with the losing bonus point.

Dunstabians beat Old Leamingtonians 20-0 this afternoon to progress into the next round of the RFU Senior Vase, Scott Warren, Toby Mead and Glenn Brinkley crossed the whitewash for Dees, with Kev Boland adding a converted and Zach Bourne a drop goal for good measure. "It was a really hard team we faced today, so it was a well-earned victory," said Dees' Campbell Haig.

Blues hammered by Chippenham

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

IT was a day to forget for Dunstable Town as they were hammered 4-1 away to Chippenham Town.

A recent spell of form had seen The Blues back in the play off hunt in the Evo Stik Southern League Premier Division but they were thrashed by their fellow promotion hopefuls.

First half goals from Andy Sandell and Alex Ferguson gave the hosts a comfortable lead at the break.

James Guthrie added a third soon after the restart before Sandell rounded off a superb performance with a brace, netting in the 85th minute.

Dunstable's one positive was an own goal from Greg Tindle.

In the Evo Stik Southern League Division One Central Barton Rovers shared the spoils with Beaconsfield SYCOB.

The two sides battled to a goalless first half but in the second half Becky took the lead with a superb solo effort from Omari Patrick.

Patrick took control of the ball outside the area and drove the ball home under the advancing Kyle Forster in the Rovers goal with 58 minutes gone.

Barton battled and got their just reward in the 81st minute.

Fine wing play from Jordan Davis allowed him to drive a cross into the area which was neatly finished by Jason Blackett.

In the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division, AFC Dunstable ran out easy 3-0 winners over Sun Sports, with BJ Christie (2) and Lewis Crowys on target.

Still won't give up the fight despite slump

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Luton manager John Still insists he does not fear for his job and got the full backing of defender Luke Wilkinson after a second spectacular capitulation in a week as they lost 3-0 at relegation-threatened Newport County.

As with Tuesday's 4-3 League Two home reverse it was a second half slump brought on by a substitute. At Rodney Parade it was Swansea loan man Oliver McBurnie who marked his debut with a 23-minute hat-trick.

It leaves Luton 14 points off the automatic promotion places and six behind the play-off pace but boss Still shrugged off fears about his position at the helm.

"You know what, when you do this job and people talk about the

POOR DISPLAY: Luton will not care to dwell on their dismal defeat at Newport County pressure," he said, adding: "Listen, in all walks of life there are pressures. I've got the best job in the world. I do it to the best of my ability and I've done it very successfully for a large amount of years. At the moment it's not that successful, of course it isn't. Well, I have to take that on the chin, that's part of the game. In this game you have highs and lows. "You have to treat them both the same – never too high with success and never too low with failure. It's disappointing at the moment.

"The players are disappointed at the moment, staff are disappointed at the moment, supporters are disappointed, everyone is disappointed at the moment, but that's football and I have to take that on the chin."

Defender Wilkinson, who returned to the side after missing that Carlisle calamity with a thigh strain, said: "We're 100 per cent behind the manager and his coaching staff. Hopefully the fans can be 100 per cent behind him too."

Asked if Town can still secure automatic promotion, Wilkinson said: "It's never out of the picture. Other teams might slip up and we can go on an unbelievable run, so you can never say never. First of all we've got to work hard and get back to winning ways."

Hat-trick by Newport debutant McBurnie condemns the Hatters to defeat in South Wales

Sorry Luton washed away

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

NEWPORT COUNTY 3
LUTON TOWN 0

BLACK Friday, Black Saturday, what's the difference? Bargains were on offer but all Luton got was short-changed with and served with a familiar sense of déjà vu.

The Hatters, however, did snag an exclusive deal as the only side to lose at Newport County this term – a buy-one-get-one-free League Two offer cashed in eight months after their last defeat at Rodney Parade.

And after the midweek debacle at home to Carlisle – where they conceded three goals in 14 minutes in a 4-3 home defeat – the last thing Town needed was to get stung by a super sub.

No sooner had Swansea loanee Oliver McBurnie come on to make his County debut had he bagged his first of a 23-minute treble. His opener on 63 minutes was Newport's first shot on target. They only had four all game. Luton are the gift that just keeps on giving to their League Two rivals.

Worse still, is this cannot be described as an anomaly for the brittle Hatters. Even ever-reliable goalkeeper Mark Tyler weighed in with the mistakes – with two that led to goals. Automatic promotion is almost certainly out of reach – 14 points off the top three now – and the jury is still out on a play-off berth.

They're now just as close to the 21st placed Welsh side as they are the play-offs – six points from both. And that, for a club with their ambition, may as well be nowhere.

Manager John Still said: "I don't want to blame Mark. It's not fair because Mark has been brilliant, but it was bit like the other night. A mistake after a mistake and it led to the defeat. Until the goal I thought we controlled the game."

But they were slightly the better team for an hour and then, at the first sign of adversity, they crumbled and made relegation-threatened Newport look like champions elect.

Town certainly had the better chances, with two in the first 15 minutes. First was a tame shot from Alex Lawless and, while goalkeeper Joe Day gathered easily, the County man's next trick was to spectacularly deny Danny Green after the Luton winger had arrowed a long range effort at the top corner.

Much the more threatening in the final third were the Hatters at that stage and only a deflection denied Ollie Lee after he twisted skillfully away from two County defenders.

Day then beat away a Josh McQuoid curler, with Jack Marriott just unable to stretch for the rebound and, while they went into the half time

SORRY END: Luton's players trudge off in the pouring rain after a poor second-half display led to defeat in Newport interval on terms, there looked to be only one winner.

Then again, at the moment, Luton could go to a free, all-you-can-eat buffet and come away hungry.

McBurnie was introduced on 58 minutes and five minutes later he glanced a low cross past Tyler, but worse was to come for the keeper and Town.

The 38-year-old uncharacteristically spilled a long range Alex Rodman shot that zipped off the sodden turf for the 19-year-old to gobble up the rebound.

Then, for good measure, the Hatters keeper tied a big bow on McBurnie's hat-trick, passing straight to Scott Boden who gleefully squared for the striker to slide into an empty net.

It was Christmas come early for County, but for Town, dark times indeed. It's a rough deal.
